6. If after the Dispute Resolution Tribunal award, a party obtained decisive papers of the case, the submission of which was obstructed by his opponent.
7. If the Dispute Resolution Tribunal award ruled in a matter not claimed by the opponents or by more than what had been claimed. However, if it was possible to isolate the orders related to the claims of the opponents from the other orders, then it is not permissible to annul from the dispute resolution tribunal award other than that part which contains the orders related to the matters which the award had adjudicated in matters not claimed by the opponents or by more than they claimed.
8. If the dispute resolution tribunal award contradicts another award having res judicata status provided that all the opponents in the both cases are the same persons and status and the subject matter of the case is the same subject matter in the previous case.

Article (14)

The challenge stipulated in Article (13) of this law shall be filed in the ordinary manner for filing the case within thirty days of the date of the award, or its notification as the case may be, such period shall be calculated in regard to the instances stipulated in paragraphs (4) to (6) of Article (13) of this law, from the first day the fraud appeared or the admission of the forger or the judgment evidencing the forgery or the judgment against the committer of the false testimony or the day the withheld paper appeared.

The plaint of challenge must include the challenge reasons, otherwise it shall be void. The challenger must deposit upon filing the plaint a sum equivalent to 2% of the awarded sum or ten thousand Bahrain Dinars whichever is more. The plaint of challenge shall not be accepted unless accompanied by proof of deposit. It is sufficient to provide a single deposit when multiple challengers file their challenge in a single plaint; even if the challenge reasons were different, the court shall confiscate the deposit or a part thereof if the court adjudged denying the challenge or non acceptance or its lapse.

Article (15)

Without prejudice to provision of Articles (14) of this law, the award issued by the Dispute Resolution Tribunal in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be deemed a final judgment issued by the courts of Bahrain, and the regulation shall stipulate the provisions attesting the enforcement of the award.

The Dispute Resolution Tribunal's award issued in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be enforceable unless the Cassation Court suspends its enforcement upon the request of the Challenger in a Challenge plaint.

Article (16)

Until the Chamber commences its jurisdictions stipulated in Chapter (2) of this Law, the courts and the entities that have judicial jurisdiction shall continue to adjudicate the cases that fall in the jurisdiction of the Chamber in accordance with the provisions of this law until a final judgment is reached therein.

Article (17)

The Cassation Court alone shall have the jurisdiction to determine whether the Chamber or one of the courts has the jurisdiction to settle a dispute if the case concerning the same subject was filed before both of them and neither of them waived its jurisdiction or both of them waived their jurisdictions. The Cassation Court shall have the jurisdiction to settle the dispute concerning execution of two contradictory judgments, one issued by the Chamber and the other issued by one of the courts.

The request shall be filed in a plaint submitted to the court's clerk section and the disputants shall be notified in accordance with the rules related to notification stipulated in the Civil and Commercial Procedures law. The disputants are entitled to submit a memorandum of response thereon within eight days following the date of their notification. After the opinion of the Technical Bureau of the court in the request, the Bureau shall submit it to the Chief of the Court to determine a session to examine the matter before the court and notify the disputants at least three days before the session. Unless the Cassation Court decides otherwise, the filed request shall not suspend the conduct of the concerned case. If the request is submitted after the judgment in the case the Cassation Court may suspend any or both of the contradictory judgments.

Article (18)

The Supreme Judicial Counsel shall oversee the conduct of the work in the Chamber in connection with the disputes under its jurisdiction, as an entity with a judicial jurisdiction in accordance with the provisions of this section and pursuant to the provision stipulated in the regulation.

Section (2) Chamber Jurisdiction by Parties Agreement

Article (19)

The Chamber shall be competent in disputes that the parties agree in writing to settle by the Chamber.

Article (20)

If the dispute before the Chamber has been conducted in accordance with the provisions of this section, then determination of cost and remuneration shall be in accordance with provisions mentioned in the Procedural Rules.

Article (21)

If the parties did not agree upon the applicable law on the subject matter of the dispute and the dispute before the Chamber has been conducted in accordance with the provisions of this section, the Dispute Resolution Tribunal shall determine the law specified by the rules of conflict of laws that the Tribunal deems applicable to the subject matter of the dispute.

Article (22)

a) If the parties did not agree upon the language(s) to be used in the disputes resolution procedures and the dispute is conducted before the Chamber in accordance with the provisions of this section, the dispute resolution tribunal shall specify the language(s) to be used in these procedures.

b) The Procedural Rules shall stipulate the provisions regulating translation of documents and papers to the language(s) used in the dispute resolution procedures.

Article (23)

a) The award of the Dispute Resolution Tribunal issued in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be enforceable by an order issued by a High Court of Appeal Judge upon a request petition submitted by the enforcement order applicant accompanied with the original Dispute Resolution Tribunal award and a copy of the dispute resolution agreement, and after seeing the award and the agreement, and assuring that it does not contravene with Public Order in the Kingdom.

b) The order of the High Court of Appeal Judge concerning the request of the enforcement of the Dispute Resolution Tribunal award shall be reasoned, the dispute parties may petition thereof, before the High Court of Appeal within thirty days from its issuance or its notification, as the case may be, for any reasons stipulated in paragraph (a) in article (24) of this law.

c) The Judge who issued the order concerning the enforcement request, shall not be included in the composition of the court selected to adjudicate the petition.

Article (24)

a) The parties before the Chamber, in accordance with the provisions of this section, may challenge before the Casation Court the award issued by the Dispute Resolution Tribunal. They may also submit before the same court a petition against the order issued by the High Court of Appeal concerning the enforcement request, within the period stipulated in article (23) of this law, for any of the following reasons:

1. Nullity of the Agreement to settle the dispute before the Chamber due to incapacity of one of the parties or due to this agreement contravening provisions of the applicable law chosen by the parties.
2. The challenger or the petitioner was not served a notice in a proper manner regarding the appointment of a member of the Dispute Resolution Tribunal or the dispute resolution procedures or was not enabled to present his defense.
3. Composition of the Dispute Resolution Tribunal or the dispute resolution procedures are contrary to what was stipulated in the parties' agreement.

4. The Dispute Resolution Tribunal award dealt with an unintended dispute or one not contained in the submitted agreement or contains orders in matters outside the scope of the agreement. However, if it was possible to isolate the orders related to the submitted matters to the Tribunal from the other orders not submitted thereto, then it is not permissible to set-aside the Dispute Resolution Tribunal award except that part which contains the orders related to the matters which were not to be submitted to the tribunal.
5. The award of the Dispute Resolution Tribunal contradicts the public order in the Kingdom of Bahrain.

b) The challenge or petition stipulated in paragraph (a) of this article shall be filed in the ordinary manner for filing the case, and its plaint must include the reasons upon which it was based, otherwise it shall be void.

The challenger or the petitioner must provide upon filing the plaint the deposit stipulated in the law of Cassation Court. The plaint of challenge or petition shall not be accepted if it was not accompanied by proof of the deposit. It is sufficient to provide a single deposit when multiple challengers or petitioners file their challenge or petition in a single plaint; even if the reasons were different the court shall confiscate the deposit or a part thereof if the court adjudged denying the challenge or the petition or non acceptance or its lapse.

c) Filing the Challenge or the petition stipulated in this article, shall not suspend the enforcement of the award of the Dispute Resolution Tribunal Unless the Cassation Court decides to suspend the enforcement upon the challenger or the petitioner requests in the challenge or petition plaint.

Article (25)

Without prejudice to the procedures stipulated in Articles (23) and (24) of this law concerning enforcement of the Dispute Resolution Tribunal award, parties to the dispute shall not be entitled to challenge on nullity base against the award issued by the Dispute Resolution Tribunal in accordance with Article (24) of this law, if the parties have agreed in writing to choose a foreign law concerning the dispute, and they shall not be entitled to challenge the award before Bahrain's Courts, and that the challenge against the award shall be before the competent authority in another state.
