

BCDR International Arbitration Review

The BCDR International Arbitration Review is a journal published by Wolters Kluwer.

This publication helps both international arbitration practitioners and academics to identify and better understand trends, developments and procedural issues relating to arbitration in the Arab World or as seen from an Arab perspective.

This biannual journal, written in both English and Arabic, is intended to help increase awareness of alternative dispute resolution mechanisms and arbitration in the Arab world, and to provide the outside world with a perspective on related developments occurring in the region. In addition, it provides a forum for practitioners and academics from and for the Arab world to comment on international arbitration.

Each issue features:

- Thought-provoking articles by leading practitioners and academics,
- Insightful case law from the region,
- Important legislative and procedural documents.

Each issue focuses on a specific theme or topic that is both timely and of particular interest to the Arab region.

Previous topics included:

- The Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards in the Arab States of the Gulf,
- Women's Voices in International Arbitration,
- Arbitration in Egypt,
- Investment Arbitration in the Middle East,
- Construction Arbitration in the Middle East.

Upcoming topics will include:

- Third-Party Funding in International Arbitration,
- Conflicts of Interest in International Arbitration.

Subscribers will receive comprehensive insight into international arbitration practice from an Arab perspective.

About the editor

The editor of the BCDR International Arbitration Review, Professor Nassib G. Ziadé, is a prominent figure in the world of international arbitration, with a wealth of experience in publishing. He is former deputy secretary-general of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) and editor of the ICSID Review, former director of the Dubai International Arbitration Centre (DIAC) and current CEO of the Bahrain Chamber for Dispute Resolution (BCDR-AAA). He is assisted by an advisory board of experts, consisting of recognized members of the international arbitration community.
